

Data protection

General remarks

The protection of your privacy is of particular importance to the BEYOND Foundation, and this also applies to the use of your data during your visit to the website of the BEYOND Foundation (hereinafter the 'BEYOND website').

This statement as well as the questions and answers on data protection set out how the BEYOND Foundation handles personal data, what information the BEYOND Foundation gathers and evaluates, and how this information is both used and managed.

Anonymity and information gathered automatically

The BEYOND website may generally be accessed without the provision of personal data. Your visit to the BEYOND website is logged, whereby only the following access data is recorded for anonymous statistical purposes:

The IP address used by your current computer, the name of the website accessed, the date and time of access, the volume of data transferred, notification of whether the access was successful, description of the type of web browser used, the operating system used, number of visits, average length of visit, pages accessed.

The access data listed above cannot be used to create a personal user profile, therefore it is generally not possible for us to make direct personal reference to you. The information saved is used to determine the attractiveness of the BEYOND website and to optimise its content.

Data processing

No personal data is gathered, processed or used by the BEYOND website without your permission. However, in individual cases, the BEYOND Foundation will require information from you.

Should you decide to declare your interest to us and disclose your personal data for the purposes of establishing contact, specifically your name, address or email address, we will not use this data for any other purpose. In this case, you disclose your data voluntarily. The BEYOND Foundation adheres to all applicable laws and regulations in its use of the personal information thus communicated.

Questions and comments

If you have any questions or comments on data protection at the BEYOND Foundation, you may direct them to info@beyond-foundation.org at any time.
